PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

SALUTE TO THE TEXAS FLAG

Honor the Texas Flag; I pledge allegiance to thee, Texas, one state under God, one and indivisible.

FEDERATION COLLECT

We praise and thank Thee, Father, for the gift of music. Through us, as channels of Thy grace, may this blessed legacy be shared with all mankind.

Grant that we may exemplify in our own lives the harmony of Thy great purpose for us.

Give us magnitude of soul and such understanding hearts that we who make music may be as players upon rightly tuned instruments, responding to Thy leading.

Let us with renewed consecration dedicate ourselves to the purpose of our Federation, to bring the spiritualizing force of music to the inner life of our nation.

Open our minds that divine knowledge and wisdom may teach us how best to execute our pledge.

INVOCATION

We will sing a song of prayer to Thee,
O Lord, our God, eternally,
To invoke Thy blessings on this day
In all we do and all we say.
O Lord, hear our suppliant plea;
We will sing the song yet again to Thee
With a loving heart and fervently;
For we know all Good, all Truth and Light
Come from Thee, our source, our strength, our might.
O Lord! Our Lord! Be with us through this night.
Amen

BENEDICTION

(Official benediction of the National Federation of Music Clubs)

The Gift of Song

May we ever grateful be
For the beauty of this day.
For love, for friends, for the gift of song,
Lord hear us as we pray.
Bless us as we leave this place
To go upon our way.
May the love of music bind our hearts
As we join as one and say,
Thank you Lord, Gracious Lord.
Thank you for this day.

FEDERATION HYMN

Vigili et Sancti (Cologne 1623)

To Thee, Our God, Creator King,
To Thee, our hymn of thanks we sing.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Thy boundless mercy crowns our days.
Thine be the meed of joyful praise.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia!

Thy truth and patience make us know.
Toward Thy perfection let us grow.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Thy providence our path has led.
By Thy good grace our souls are fed,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia!

On Thy strong arm Thy people lean.
Grant vision clear and purpose keen,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Our lives to Thee we dedicate,
Thy truth to keep inviolate –
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia!

Agreement

I have read this Policy and Fee Regulations concerning the use of the Music Club Property and agree to abide by such regulations. I assume full responsibility of the Music Club Property while it is in my care. I agree to sign the attached hold harmless document provided by the Music Club of Kingsville and agree to release and hold harmless the Music Club of Kingsville, all its members, volunteers, or others serving for the Music Club of Kingsville in any way, from all liability, both real and implied, for any and all accidents which may occur while I am using said premises/building.

Policy and Fee Regulations for use of Music Club Property

General Guidelines

Use of the B.C. and Addie Brookshire Music Club Building located at 215 West Henrietta, Kingsville, Texas and its surrounding property and facilities (hereinafter referred to as “Music Club Property”) are subject to the following general guidelines and regulations. Only Active Music Club Members may sponsor and use Music Club facilities. Any deviation from these rules and regulations must be approved by the Music Club House and Rules Committee.

- Music Club of Kingsville, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as “Music Club”) scheduled activities take precedence over all other activities.
- In accordance with Article II of the Music Club’s Bylaws which states that the object of this Corporation shall be the study of music, the development of individual talent, and the promotion of greater interest in music within the community”, first priority for use of Music Club Property shall be given to members and member-groups whose activities and programs relate to music.
- Special consideration will be given to meetings of groups formed for benevolent and educational purposes.
- In accordance with Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and the directives in the Charter of the Music Club and the Corporation’s bylaws, political and religious gatherings will not be allowed on Music Club Property.
- No alcoholic beverages or smoking will be allowed on Music Club Property.
- Scheduling for non-Music Club related activities are subject to availability of the Music Club Property and must be approved at least two weeks in advance by the Music Club House and Rules Committee.
- Special permission is required for use of the Music Club pianos.
- The charges for use of the Music Club Property will assist in the costs for utilities consumed and general usage expenses. The Music Club has no custodial staff. Therefore, the Music Club House and Rules Committee requires that any individual or group permitted to use Music Club Property be responsible for complete cleanup at the conclusion of the function or event. The building must be left in the same condition as before the use/rental of the building.
- Nothing is to be attached or removed from the walls.
- Confetti, glitter, silly string, or other similar materials are prohibited in or on the Music Club Property. No confetti or other obstructive materials may be washed down the kitchen drains.
- Deposits (if required) and rental fees must be paid at least two weeks IN ADVANCE of the scheduled function.
- Payment must be made by cash, money order, or certified check (no personal checks) to a member of the Music Club House Committee.
- Deposits may be refunded after the scheduled function, provided no repairs and/or cleaning are required and the Music Club Property keys have been returned. In general, a deposit of $100 will be required. The Music Club House Committee may waive the deposit under special circumstances.
- Once the attached documents are signed and the required fees are paid, keys for the Music Club Property may be checked out through a member of the House Committee.

Kitchen Policies and Clean-Up Procedures

Use of the refrigerator/freezer for storing items prior to a function must be arranged in advance through the Music Club House and Rules Committee. Food items should be removed from the kitchen immediately following the function. No linens, dishes, cooking

TEXAS, OUR TEXAS

Official State Song

Adopted by Texas Legislature May, 1929

Words: Gladys Yoakum Wright & William J. Marsh

Music: William J. Marsh

VERSE 1

Texas, our Texas! All hail the mighty State,
Texas, our Texas! So wonderful, so great!
Boldest and grandest, withstanding every test;
O Empire wide and glorious,
You stand supremely blest.

CHORUS

God bless you, Texas!
And keep you brave and strong,
That you may grow in power and worth,
Throughout the ages long.
God bless you, Texas!
And keep you brave and strong,
That you may grow in power and worth,
Throughout the ages long.

VERSE 2

Texas, O Texas! Your free-born single Star
Sends out its radiance to nations near and far.
Emblem of Freedom, it sets our hearts aglow
With thought of San Jacinto and glorious Alamo.

(Repeat CHORUS)

SECTION 2: The Club House and Rules Committee shall draw up rules and regulations for the use of the B. C. and Addie Brookshire Music Club Building. The committee shall have three sub-chairmen with specific duties: (1) be Custodian of all the Corporation's legal papers and records; (2) maintain a calendar and reservations; and (3) be responsible for care and maintenance of building and grounds.

SECTION 3: The President shall appoint such other committees as may be necessary to carry out the work and program of the corporation.

ARTICLE XII – Parliamentary Authority

All points not covered by the By-laws shall be determined according to Roberts Rules of Order (Rev).

ARTICLE XIII – Dissolution of the Corporation

SECTION 1: In the event of the dissolution of the Music Club of Kingsville, Incorporated, or termination of its Charter, the B. C. and Addie Brookshire Building shall be distributed for an educational or charitable purpose as outlined in the Certificate of Incorporation, by the State of Texas, Office of the Secretary of State, dated August 23, 1965.

SECTION 2: The land on which the building of the Music Club of Kingsville, Inc. is constructed as described in deed from the State of Texas, County of Kleberg, acquired by trustees, filed February 17, 1965, recorded in Vol. 195, p. 322 e. Seq., is the sole property of the Music Club of Kingsville, Inc. In the event of the dissolution of the Music Club of Kingsville, Inc., the land shall be distributed by trustees, the successors and assigns, for an educational or charitable purpose.

ARTICLE XIV – Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended at any business meeting of the Corporation or duly called meeting by the President, by a 2/3 vote of those present eligible to vote, provided a quorum is present, and a verbal or written note of the proposed amendments was given to the members of the Corporation at the previous business meeting.

(Revised March, 2015)

SECTION 7: The Corresponding Secretary shall be responsible for written communications of the Corporation, the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee.

SECTION 8: The duties of other officers shall be those as outlined in Roberts Rules of Order (Rev.).

ARTICLE IX – Board of Directors

SECTION 1: The affairs and the property of the Corporation shall be administered by a Board of Directors consisting of ten (10) members.

SECTION 2: The Board of Directors shall consist of the ten (10) elective officers. The immediate Past President shall be a non-voting Advisor to the Board.

SECTION 3: The Board of Directors shall administer the affairs of the Corporation (a) in its cultural and educational function and (b) in its legal function.

- a. In its cultural and educational function, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall pass on all recommendations for membership presented by the Membership Committee, approve the Treasurer's budget before its presentation to the membership, and replace any officer (other than the President) who is unable to complete his/her term of office.
- b. In its legal function, the Board of Directors shall pass upon all expenditures of the legal transactions, namely: taxes, insurance, internal revenue, etc., of the Corporate property and the use of the building. In these transactions it shall avoid incurring debts beyond the funds at its disposal without special authority of the membership. The Board of Directors shall appoint a committee of Music Club members to audit the books if the Board votes to hold an audit.

SECTION 4: The Board of Directors shall keep a record of its proceedings, such record to be separate from the minutes of the regular meetings of the membership.

SECTION 5: Meetings of the Board of Directors

- a. In its cultural and educational function, the Board shall hold regular meetings preceding the business meetings as needed. In its legal function, it shall meet prior to the annual May meeting and other times as needed.
- b. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President.
- c. All Board meetings shall be open for informal sessions and closed for designated business sessions.
- d. All business, other than routine matters, transacted by the Board of Directors shall be reported to the general membership at the next business meeting.
- e. Six members shall constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors.
- f. Whenever a matter at hand comes before the Board and one of the Directors or voting members of the organization may have a fiscal interest in said matter, or other conflict of interest, such member(s) or Director(s) shall abstain from voting.

ARTICLE X – Executive Committee

SECTION 1. The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, the First Vice-President, the Second Vice-President, the Third Vice-President, the Recording Secretary, the Treasurer and the Immediate Past President of the Corporation who shall serve as an ex-officio member. The duties of this committee shall be to act in an advisory capacity to the President, to decide upon matters of immediate acceptance between meetings of the Board of Directors, and to perform all other duties that may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors for approval.

SECTION 2: The quorum of the Executive Committee shall be three (3) members.

SECTION 3: The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President or upon request of three of its members. It shall make a complete report at each meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI – Committees

SECTION 1: The following Standing Committee Chairs shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors prior to the first meeting in the Fall of each year: Contest, Awards and Scholarships; Civic Music; National Music Week; Year Book; Ways and Means; Hymn of the Month; Telephone; Publicity; and Club House and Rules.

Dr. Joachim Reinhuber
will play

Excerpts from the 3 Beethoven Piano Sonatas in c minor
Op. 10/1, Op. 13, and Op. 111

Dr. Joachim Reinhuber, born in Frankfurt, Germany, comes from a musical family. His first teacher, Franz Calvelli-Adorno, was his grandfather. While in Germany Joachim was member of the faculty of the City of Aschaffenburg Music School where he taught piano, chamber music and music theory for 14 years.

In August 2006 Joachim returned to Texas to pursue the DMA program in piano performance at the University of Texas at Austin, which he completed in November 2008.

Dr. Reinhuber’s interest in music theory is documented by his double major degree in piano and theory. Since the fall of 2008 he has been serving as the head of piano studies at TAMUK.

MAKE THE SEASON BRIGHT

with OSCAR DIAZ

and his

SOUTH TEXAS TROMBONE SOUND

Dr. Oscar Diaz, Jr.

Dr. Oscar Diaz, Jr. was appointed Assistant Professor of Trombone at Texas A&M University-Kingsville in 2007. He holds dual Bachelor Degrees in Trombone Performance and Music Education from Texas A&M University at Kingsville, a Master Degree in Trombone Performance from The University of Northern Colorado and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Trombone Performance at the University of Texas at Austin. His principal teachers include Dr. Nathaniel Brickens, Dr. Nathaniel Wickham, Dr. Paul Hageman, Ed Avila, Wanda Avila, Ron Welborn, and Paul Larson

Dr. Diaz has been a teaching assistant at The University of Northern Colorado and The University of Texas at Austin. He has taught public school in Laredo, TX and taught privately in the Westlake and Lake Travis School Districts in Austin, TX.

Dr. Diaz has performed with the Fort Collins, Longmont, and Cheyenne Symphonies of Colorado, and Wyoming. He was a freelance trombonist in the northern Colorado area performing with numerous jazz bands and brass quintets. He has recorded with The Dave Camwell Group, the University of Northern Colorado Lab Band I, JazzBonez and The University of Texas Trombone Choir (winners of the Emory Remington Competition in 2007). He has performed at the Eastern Trombone Workshop, the International Trombone Festival, the Texas Music Educators Association Conference and also performed with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square. He has been a featured soloist with the Laredo Wind Ensemble, Texas A&M International University Symphonic Band, the University of Northern Colorado Trombone Choir, the University of Texas Trombone Choir and the Texas A&M University Kingsville Wind Symphony.

Dr. Diaz has shared the stage with trombone greats such as Bill Reichenbach, Conrad Herwig, Slide Hampton, and The Trombones de Costa Rica to name a few. He has performed in numerous master classes with artists such as Henry Charles Smith, Ralph Sauer, the Canadian Brass, and The Trombones de Costa Rica.

Dr. Diaz is currently Principal Trombonist in the Laredo Philharmonic Orchestra, Second Trombonist in the Victoria Symphony, Bass Trombonist in the Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra and freelances in the South Texas area. He is a member of the Jazz Trombone Ensemble Jazzbonez, winners of the 2007 Kai Winding Jazz Trombone Competition and the 2007 National Jazz Trombone Ensemble/Capitol Bones Competition. Also as a founding member of the Minor Fourth Trombone Quartet, he tours every year around the state and nation. This past year the M4TQ performed with the United States’s Pershing’s Own Army band at the American Trombone Festival later this year in Washington D.C.. The Texas A&M University-Kingsville Trombone Choir under Dr. Diaz’s baton has been awarded an honorable mention award from the International Trombone Festival’s Emory Remington Trombone Choir competition. Due to the continued excellence of the studio, the choir was invited to perform at the International Trombone Festival in Valencia, Spain in 2015. Over the years, the studio has performed at the Eastern Trombone Workshop now American Trombone Workshop in 2010 and in 2014, the Texas State Symposium in 2013, various high schools, and numerous high profile university functions personally invited by the president of our university. Over the years, members of the TAMUK Trombone studio have been placed in national and international solo competitions as well as being accepted to many outstanding institutions throughout the nation post-graduation. Dr. Diaz is an artist/clinician for Michael Rath Instruments.

South Texas Trombone Sound

The South Texas Trombone Sound (STTS) is an octet comprised of the best trombonists from the award winning Texas A&M University-Kingsville Choir. The STTS has been recognized as one of the top trombone ensembles in the world by The International Trombone Association. The STTS most note-worthy performances were at the 2010 and 2014 American Trombone Festival in Fort Myer, VA and at the 2015 International Trombone Festival in Valencia, Spain. Most recently the STTS received a second prize award from the ENKOR International Music Competition against various chamber music ensembles from all over the world. Various members of the STTS have been awarded or named finalists in national and international solo competitions.
